Transcription of List of Coins, n.d. #21

Even with the Indian wampum, black & white, peage or skins or fur, "muskett bullettes of a full boare", powder, tobacco and brass counters, the colonies were hard put for a means of exchange. England would not coin money for them nor let them coin it for themselves. A contract was it is true farmed out early in the seventeen hundreds and a beautiful series of coins in copper--the American Rose--in many varieties was struck off. Wood, the contractor for this issue, had also a contract for an issue for Ireland. But his coins were spurned there; Dean swift inveighed against them there and they were driven out. So much of a row was raised that Wood's contracts for both Ireland and America were withdrawn and the Colonies were where they were before. Lord Baltimore tried to issue silver and copper pieces for his colony of Maryland but his venture was quickly set upon by the Mint authorities at home and...

...before the coins reach the Province. Maryland is said to have indeed established a Mint of her own but there are no records of any output from it nor has any coin survived into our time. Massachussetts did establish a Mint and for thirty years or more put out the "pine tree" shilling and other pieces in silver; in defiance of the home authorities until they too were finally suppressed. All these pieces, with the exeption of a twopence, though they were struck from 1652 until some time in the eighties, bear the date of the first year of coinage as if not to call attention to the fact that the unauthorized proceedure kept going. There are records if altared and indications that some of the other colonies did coin money, but Virginia seems to have been the only one to authorize and coin at her initiative. Very beautiful lalffeumms in copper and even rare shillings in Ohen were got over but alas too late. They are dated 1773 and 1774 and reach the Old Dominion when the head of George III on them was no longer a...

MELTING OUR GOLD COINS.

Spanish Jewelers' Demand Withdrawing Them from Money Market.

MADRID, July 6.—Spanish goldsmiths and jewelers are gathering all the American gold coins they can get for the purpose of melting them for the manufacture of jewelry. As a result these pieces of money are rapidly disappearing from the market and going into the melting pot, as American coins contain more pure gold than those current in Europe, which are generally eighteen carats fine.

Exchange officials who a few months ago displayed American coins in their windows are now declining to sell them and are offering paper dollars instead.
Gold coins of other nations may still be obtained, but pre-war rates are being charged.

COAL MINERS FIRED UPON.

Men on Kentucky Side of Tug River Attacked from West Virginia.

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., July 7.—Employes at the mine of the Borderland Coal Company, at Borderland, five miles east of Williamson, were fired upon this morning as they were entering the mine, which is on the Kentucky side of Tug River, according to reports reaching here. Those firing at the miners are said to have been on a mountainside on the opposite bank of the river, and they also directed shots at the bridge, which is on the West Virginia side.
None of the shots was effective.

The miners are reported to have returned the fire, but whether any of the attacking party was struck has not been ascertained.
Borderland is in Mingo County, where union miners have been ordered out on strike.

2 1783 Cent. WASHINGTON & INDEPENDENCE. 1783. Bust of Washington, draped, facing left, laureated. Reverse, UNITED STATES. Same design but different die to last Borders beaded. Edge plain. Size 17-1/2. Wt. 105-3/4 grs. Copper. Fair. Common. Crosby 25

Same as 1783 Cent but without Tail ES

2/ 1783 Cent. Same design.<sup>or</sup> Copper bronzed. Proof. Restrike of about 1860, by W. S. Lincoln & Son, London. Size 17-3/4.
Wt. 147 grs. Crosby 16 X 2.

1/ 1783 Cent. WASHINGTON & INDEPENDENCE. 1783. Bust of Washington left, laureated, draped.
Reverse, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA? ~~1/100~~ 1/100. In centre a wreath of two <sup>olive</sup> branches ~~of olive~~ tied with a ribbon, enclosing ONE CENT. ~~below~~ ~~below~~ 1/100. Border, milled. Edge plain.

Wt. 117-3/4 grs. Size 17-1/2. Copper Very fine. Common.

Crosby fig 71 ~~from~~ <sup>1/2</sup>
1/ 1783 Cent. Duplicate. Fine. Size 17-1/2. Wt. <sup>115 1/2</sup> ~~115-3/4~~ grs.

1783 Cent. GEORGIUS TRIUMPHS. Undraped bust of Washington, facing right, laureated.

Reverse, VOCE POPOLI. 1783. Half length of Liberty upright between a trellis of upright and horizontal bars, fleur-de-lis at each corner. In her right hand, extended, is a branch of olive, and her left a staff. Border, milled. Edge plain. Size 18. Wt. 117-1/2. Copper.

Extremely fine. Common.

Crosby, <sup>plate IX 14.</sup> p. 341.

The identity of the portrait on this coin has been the occasion of considerable comment, as it resembles Geo. III more strongly than George Washington. We incline to the latter being the individual intended, as George Washington had certainly triumphed in 1783, which date probably refers to <sup>Legend</sup>

the Peace of Versailles <sup>Legend</sup> that year, and which event officially recognized the Independence of the United States from Great Britain.
